1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the Examiner found none of cited prior art references teach any of the following steps, nor would they have been obvious the claimed radio reception apparatus, a program and a method of controlling adaptive array processing in a radio reception apparatus including "selecting from a first mode in which adaptive array processing is performed and a second mode in which adaptive array processing is not performed, in accordance with a prescribed condition, and performing control in which, when said first mode is selected, first control is performed to operate said plurality of RF reception units and said adaptive array operation processing unit, and when said second mode is selected, second control is performed so that one RF reception unit is selected as a first RF reception unit to operate and an operation of an RF reception unit other than said first RF reception unit and said adaptive array operational processing unit is stopped".

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
